

4th Street Heritage Trail PROJECT UPDATE

This Week...

Although the weather didn't do us any favors, there was still a lot of work accomplished this week. Saw-cut lines were marked, the trench drain lines were cut, and the curb edge cuts were also completed. The pedestrian barricade was finished from US231 to Jackson Street. You may have noticed some very large concrete boxes on the street, which will be placed underground as a part of the project. Vibration monitors were also installed. The first "office hours" were held at Current Blend, and as a reminder, these will take place on the first Wednesday of each month from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. Please don't hesitate to stop by with questions or concerns to meet with project representatives during those times.

Also, an FAQ sheet and parking map have been created, and we will be printing them for distribution in your businesses if you wish to do so. They can also be found on the City's website.

Up Next...

Week of Monday, February 11 – Friday, February 15, 2019

A majority of the work being done this week is storm sewer work, which will take place in the 4th & Jackson Street intersection. This will be the week the intersection is finally closed, and pedestrian walkways will be taped to allow access.

Reminders...

- Please keep thresholds and the areas in front of your doors clear and free of obstruction.
- Coordinate all deliveries with your local delivery company.
